Instructions for Intervention in Public Space

Participate in the Prostitute Poetry Project

Michael Bramwell

1. Locate a person employed as a sex worker at night.
2. Inquire about services and associated rates.
3. Offer to pay their usual and customary fees if they agree to recite any poem they know or read one supplied by you.
4. Listen as they recite poetry and pay them afterwards.
5. Thank them for providing cultural pleasure and say good night.
